Purpose and Scope

This course will focus on some of the contractual issues that many have faced during the pandemic as well as those that will likely persist in the post-pandemic world. You will learn from experienced attorneys, both in-house and outside counsel, about contractual issues as they relate to employment, government contracting, buying and selling a law practice, and bankruptcy, with discussions on indemnification, force majeure, use of technology in the contract life cycle, damages, cybersecurity, data privacy, and more.
